

xm radio is the best part of my car. not only the entertainment is excellant but all the weather channels and traffic are so helpful. if you actually entertain the thought of stopping these stations you would be doing a huge disservice to the public. freedom to grow and expand as a business in this country is what makes this country so special. please don't interfear with xm conducting their business.